Col. Woodruff Coming.
It will be seen by the following dispatch, from Alderman M. A. Downing, that Col. Woodruff arrived in Cincinnati yesterday, and will be here to-morrow afternoon by the train:

CINCINNATI, April 15.
Editors of the Democrat:
Col. Woodruff has arrived, and will be in Louisville on Thursday by the train.

M. A. DOWNING.

The Wounded Soldiers.—Three hundred and fifty of these gallant men passed over the river, at noon yesterday, on the War Eagle. They were bound for Cincinnati, and were in charge of brigade surgeon Bradford, assisted by a number of admirable men from Chicago, who had volunteered their services as physicians and nurses.

The Sanitary Commission here having learned by telegraph that these noble-hearted friends of the soldiers were almost exhausted by their ceaseless labors and watchings, had five excellent nurses in readiness, and most cordially were they welcomed. The Commission took great pleasure in providing wines and other needed articles from their rooms, and Dr. Perin very promptly furnished the medical stores required.

The fervent gratitude of the soldiers showed that our Chicago friends have rendered most efficient service in the kindest manner and have secured a place in their hearts which will remain sacred forever.

Police Proceedings.—Tuesday, April 16. Mary Dugan and Mary Hunley, drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for one month. Gone up.

Mary Cahill, drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for one month. Gone up.

Edward Casey got on a big drunk yesterday; being, however, perfectly sober this morning, and promising to strike a bee line for the mail boat, he was discharged.

Catherine Duce, presented to show cause why her child should not be bound out; dismissed.

Thomas Berry, drunk and disorderly conduct; $200 for 3 months. Gone up.

The old Louisville Legion bore themselves nobly in the battle at Pittsburg Landing. They were in the thickest of the fight on Monday, and right gallantly did every man do his duty. Too much praise cannot be accorded the brave commanders and their sterling men.

A private of the 20th Indiana regiment, who was wounded in the battle of Pittsburg, arrived at Indianapolis Sunday. He says McCook's division was forty miles from the scene of action on Sunday morning, but it arrived in time to take part in the battle Monday.

The following dispatch was received yesterday, at noon:

SAVANNAH, April 14, 1862.
To Dr. T. S. Bell:
The Fairchild left Pittsburg at 7 o'clock, p. m., with three hundred wounded.

C. E. BLIVEN.

Quartermaster Swords received authority Monday to check on the Treasury Department, at Washington, for five hundred thousand dollars in "certificates of indebtedness." Before 12 o'clock yesterday the whole amount was exhausted. Those holding claims will be compelled to hold on until further authority is received to check.

A special to the Journal, from Pittsburg Landing, states that Joseph Benedict and Price Newman, young rebels from Louisville, were killed in the battle; also, that Thomas Selva, of this city, a member of the Louisville Legion, under Rousseau, was also killed.

T. B. MORROW, Jr.—We learn that a dispatch was sent through the city yesterday to Frankfort, announcing the death, at the Pittsburg battle, of Thos. B. Morrow, Jr., late Secretary of State, under Gov. Magoffin.

No News.—The despatches this morning are utterly barren of news; not an item worth publishing; not a word of news from any quarter; nothing but the everlasting babbling of a few fools in Congress.

A rebel prisoner, who had died of his wounds on the way from Pittsburg, was left here for burial yesterday, by the steamer War Eagle. We could not learn his name.

Farmers are availing themselves of this fine weather to hurry up the crops. Many had not finished sowing oats when the war term set in.

The E. H. Fairchild reached Pittsburg Landing Sunday morning, and started back Monday evening loaded with the sick and wounded.

McCarrell's, Jefferson street, is the place to buy music.

Buell's grand army is composed of six divisions and a reserve, each of the six consisting of four brigades of infantry, with its complement of cavalry and artillery. These divisions are under the command of Generals Nelson, Crittenden, Thomas, McCook, Wood and Mitchell; and the reserve in command of General Negley. This is independent of the forces left at Nashville, under General Dumont. All these divisions are at Savannah and Pittsburg, except Mitchell's, which is occupying the Memphis and Charleston and Mobile and Ohio railroads. Out of this division a brigade of three regiments, under Colonel Curran Pope, of the 15th Kentucky regiment, not Brigadier, has been stationed at Fayetteville, Tenn. If General Mitchell out of Beauregard's communication with Memphis and his retreat by the Memphis and New Orleans railroad, he stands a poor chance.

Capt. Harry I. Spotts left the city yesterday on the J. S. Pringle for Pittsburg Landing, to bring home the body of young Joseph Benedict, a young man of excellent attainments and fine promise, who was led into the rebel army by the seductions of Buell and Col. Thos. Hunt.

Inquest No. 343.—Held on Market street, between Preston and Jackson, over the body of Henry King (free man of color), aged about 30 years. Verdict—"Came to his death suddenly on the afternoon of the 15th inst., from a fit of apoplexy caused by intemperance." J. M. BUCHANAN, Coroner.

Two rebel prisoners are in the hospital, at Evansville, supposed to be mortally wounded. They are Major S. L. Low, of the 27th Tennessee, and David Smith, of the Jackson Artillery.

In the Pittsburg battle were three Johnsons: Albert Sidney, dead; Geo. W. "Provisional Governor of Kentucky," dead; and Bushrod K. who violated his parole at Fort Donelson; he is wounded.

East Tennessee has now six regiments in the United States service, though the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth, are not yet complete. She has also two Brigadier Generals—Carter and Spear.

A vigilance committee has been appointed in Nashville. It is no doubt needed. There are other localities where such an organization would not be amiss just now.

We call the attention of the Street Inspector to the wretched condition of Third street, between Jefferson and Green. Those holes should be filled up.

Prior and Van Dorn have arrived at Corinth. So says a special dispatch in yesterday's Indianapolis Journal.

Important Meeting.—The Central Committee are requested to meet at the Journal office at 9 o'clock this morning.

Look out for the fall of Richmond.—The capture of Joseph Johnston and Vicksburg.

Wounded Kentuckians.—The Evansville Journal states that Lieutenant S. D. Brown, Company G, 26th Kentucky, is in that city slightly wounded, also Second Lieutenant A. P. Stanley, Company B, 26th Kentucky, and Captain Peter Eng, Company G, 6th Kentucky.

The Crescent City reached St. Louis on Monday morning with 361 sick and wounded, nearly all soldiers of the Federal army; fifty-one of the worst cases were left at Paducah. We find the following names of persons attached to Kentucky regiments in the lists published in the St. Louis papers:

C. Seeling, Co. B, 2d Ky. Inf.;
A. Hays, Co. B, 4th Ky. Inf.;

W. H. Smith, Co. A, 26th Ky. Inf.

TRADE IN THE SOUTH.—We learn that, in addition to their regular business in this city, Messrs. Green & Green, hat makers, have opened, under a license from the Government, an extensive stock of military hats and caps, at Nashville, for the accommodation of the army. Mr. L. B. Green has charge of the Nashville branch, and will furnish everything in their line. They keep the McClellan cap and the new style full dress officers' hats always on hand.
